

Item 1: Introduction	Williams Jones Wealth Management, LLC is registered with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission as an investment adviser. Brokerage and investment advisory services and fees differ and it is important for you to understand the differences between them. Free and simple tools are available to research firms and financial professionals at Investor.gov/CRS, which also provides educational materials about broker-dealers, investment advisers and investing.
Item 2: What investment services and advice can you provide me?	We primarily offer investment advisory services to retail investors. We also offer investment advice to foundations and institutions. The principal services we offer are investment management services where, after conducting a personalized assessment, we invest your assets in accordance with your investment objectives, risk tolerance and financial circumstances. Upon request, we will include basic financial planning services in the services we offer portfolio management clients. We typically invest client assets in individual equity securities (stocks), fixed income securities (bonds and bond funds), mutual funds, ETFs and private investment funds on a discretionary basis. For clients who are interested and financially qualified, we sponsor investment vehicles that offer our clients access to various alternative investments managed by third parties. We also act as the investment manager of two private investment funds: the WJA Housing Bond Fund (“HBF”), which seeks income that is exempt from federal income taxes by investing at least 80% of its assets in mortgage-related bonds, and the WJA Value Equity Fund (“VEF”), which invests in equity securities traded primarily in the US market. If you utilize our investment management services, you will typically give us discretionary authority to trade the assets in your account through a limited power of attorney contained in your client agreement with us. We will monitor the holdings and performance of the investments we make for you on an ongoing basis and will provide you with periodic reports about the performance and holdings of your account. We generally require new clients to have an account minimum of $1,000,000, but reserve the right to waive account minimums under appropriate circumstances. For additional information, please refer to our ADV Part 2A brochure, especially Item 4 (services), Item 7 (types of clients), Item 13 (account monitoring), and Item 16 (discretionary authority). Conversation Starters. Ask your financial professional “Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or why not?” “How will you choose investments to recommend to me?” “What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?”
Item 3: What fees will I pay?	For our wealth management and investment management services, we charge an investment advisory fee that is based on a percentage of the value of the assets in your managed portfolio account. The more assets there are in your account and the higher the value of those assets, the more you will pay to us in fees. Our firm may therefore have an incentive to encourage you to increase the assets in your account. Our fees are listed in our client agreements and described in greater detail under Item 5 of our Form ADV Part 2A brochure. The two private investment funds we manage, HBF and VEF, pay us a quarterly management fee. These fees are described in greater detail under Item 5 of our Form ADV Part 2A brochure, and in the private offering memorandum for the relevant fund. In addition to our fees, you will be responsible for other fees and expenses associated with the investment of your assets. Such other fees and expenses may include brokerage commissions and other transaction costs, fees charged by your custodian, exchanges, and taxes. You will also pay the fees and expenses associated with investment advice provided by third parties, including management and performance fees and expenses charged by private investment funds, advisory

	fees charged by third-party managers, and fees and expenses of mutual funds and exchange-traded funds in which you invest. For additional information, see Item 5 of our Form ADV. You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying. Conversation Starters. Ask your financial professional “Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?”
What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?	When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you. Here are some examples to help you understand what this means. One of the private investment funds we manage, VEF, pays a management fee that could be more for some clients than the fee clients pay for their other assets managed by us. We have “soft dollar” arrangements with certain broker-dealers under which we execute securities transactions through the broker-dealers, and, in exchange, the broker-dealers provide us with research products or services. Broker-dealer custodians that we recommend to clients, and with whom we have an institutional relationship provide us, without cost or at a discount, support services or products. We pay one of the custodians we recommend to clients, Schwab, a participation fee to participate in the Schwab Adviser Network, which is Schwab’s adviser referral program. For additional information about these conflicts and how we address them, please refer to Items 5 and 12 of our Form ADV Part 2A brochure. Conversation Starters. Ask your financial professional “How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?”
How do your financial professionals make money?	Our Firm’s financial professionals are compensated through salary and bonus or a share of the Firm’s profits. A portion of that compensation is correlated to the amount of client assets they service, the revenue our Firm earns from the financial professional’s services and/or whether the financial professional has been successful in increasing amount of client assets under the Firm’s management. Some financial professionals may be compensated by our indirect parent company, Focus Financial Partners, LLC (or one of its affiliates), based on our firm’s revenues or earnings. This gives the financial professional an incentive to encourage you to increase the size of your investment account and to maintain your investment account with us. For additional information, please refer to Item 5 of your financial professional’s ADV Part 2B Brochure Supplement. Compensation of our Firm’s financial professionals is unrelated to the type of product client assets are invested in.
Item 4: Do you or your financial professionals have legal or disciplinary history?	No. You can go to Investor.gov/CRS for free and simple search tool to research our firm and our firm’s financial professionals. Conversation Starters. Ask your financial professional “As a financial professional, do you have any disciplinary history? For what type of conduct?”
Item 5: Additional Information	For additional information about our investment advisory services, and to request a copy of Form CRS, please contact Jeff Schweon at (212) 935-8750 or jschweon@williamsjones.com. Conversation Starters. Ask your financial professional “Who is my primary contact person? Is he or she a representative of an investment adviser or a broker-dealer? Who can I talk to if I have concerns about how this person is treating me?”
